Other Info:

Can You Pack Wine in a Checked Bag on a Plane?

Yes, the TSA permits you to bring wine in checked bags on your flight

Most wine contains 11 -14% alcohol or less and falls into the appropriate allowance for alcohol content

Tip: Wine enthusiasts have good luck by slipping the wine bottle in a sock, wrapping a piece of clothing around the bottle's neck until it's as wide as the bottom of the bottle, and then adding additional clothing as padding around the bottle.

You can bring wine on board however it is still subject to maximum size/container of 3.4 oz or less.
